

CONNECTION TO ST. JAMES

"I have lived in Westwood since 1992. Although ward boundary changes moved Westwood out of St. James in 2018, I have spent most of my life as a St. James resident. I didn't move, only the border did.

My connection to St. James runs deep. I grew up in the community, attended Crestview School, Ness, and John Taylor, and my parents called St. James home for over 60 years.

St. James helped shape who I am, which is why I am running for councillor.

For more than 40 years, I have volunteered in support of youth, seniors, charities, and community initiatives. Since retiring in 2020, I have spoken before City Council and its committees more than 100 times on issues affecting residents, including infrastructure, services, transit, and bylaws.

Where I live will not affect my ability to serve St. James. I am here every day, listening, advocating, and working to ensure residents are informed, engaged, and well represented."
